

Reconnecting with the Living Earth through the Work That Reconnects

Sunday, March 19 9:00 am to 3:00 pm

At Fort's Barn, Petaluma

Directions to Fort's Barn -

Driving north on the 101, approximately 3 miles after the San Marin/Atherton exit, take the San Antonio Rd exit off Hwy 101; a right exit, which then crosses the freeway and puts you on a frontage road heading north for a couple of miles, passing the Korean Baptist Church on your right and the IONS driveway on your left and eventually arriving at the intersection to San Antonio Road on your left. Make a left and drive 3.5 miles to a T-junction.

Make a left and you are on the Point Reyes-Petaluma Road. Go along for 1.5 miles till you see the yellow diamond-shaped "Road Narrows" sign.

Just after this, look for the McEvoy Ranch sign on your left, which marks the top of Fort's driveway, and turn left down this paved but rather bumpy driveway.

1/4 mile over two cattle grids and three speed bumps*, past two donkeys (seasonal), then bear right at the fork (i.e. do not go to Brown Bag Farm) and drive to the end. Big white barn will be on your left, as the road curves round towards the house.

*Watch those speed bumps, 2-3 mph maximum! You have been warned.
